

WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHER OF THE YEAR

Natasha Schubert

Natasha C. Schubert
PHOTOGRAPHY

Offering the cherry on top of a fabulous special day, Natasha C. Schubert is a specialist wedding photographer who guarantees precious moments remain unforgettable. With a keen eye for emotion and detail, Natasha captures each element and facet of the big day from every possible angle, preserving the subtle gestures, joyful expressions and quiet in-between moments that define a couple's story. The creative understands that a wedding unfolds like a poem, filled with layers of meaning, connection and atmosphere that deserve to be remembered in their fullest form and her distinctive reportage style allows the photography expert to document events as they naturally unfold, focusing on authenticity and genuine emotion.

The judges were particularly impressed by the efforts made by Natasha and her team to create a relaxed and stress-free environment for the happy couple. In her hands, photography becomes an unobtrusive presence, gently accompanying the celebration without ever interrupting its rhythm. Her thoughtful and considered approach means couples and their guests are able to remain fully immersed in the joy of the day, while every meaningful detail is captured with expertise and purpose. Additional offerings such as photo books, prints and bespoke albums provide additional opportunities to celebrate and share in these memories.
